A HOUSEBOATMAN SAW THE SLAYERS

Dead Youth Victim of Men From Another County.

Worked for Big Four Railroad and Had a Time Check and a Gold Piece.

POLICE HAVE DEFINITE CLEW

Dead man worked for Big Four.
Seen with two men that night.
Had chain check and money.
Police have clew out of town.
Shanty-boatman testifies.

Out of Paducah leads the trail of the murderers of the unknown dead man, who was picked up unconscious near Sixth and Terrell streets Tuesday night, but it appears that Chief Collins and Detective Baker, who have taken up the work, started successfully by Captain Harlan, Lieutenant Potter and the patrolman, have at last struck on something tangible.
They have found a man, who saw the victim and his two murderers the night of the killing, and his evidence supplies a motive, that of robbery.
The victim, whose name is yet unknown, however, is no longer a mystery. He was an employee of the Big Four railroad and through this knowledge his identity will be established.

Chief of Police James Collins and Detective Will Baker started in on the case yesterday morning. They made a flying trip to Mayfield on a freight train, returning last night about 8:30 o'clock. They gave out nothing but stated they had some good clews. This morning Chief Collins made a statement as follows:

"I think that we will soon have the matter cleared up and maybe that a warrant will be issued today. We learned from a man residing on a houseboat on the river near the foot of Terrell street, that on Tuesday night three young men, one being the murdered boy, came near his houseboat and he passed them and had words with them, learning the boy's name. The boatman cannot remember the name now but states that the boy had a chain check and a $10 gold piece. This was the last heard of the trio until the boy was discovered in the field fatally wounded."

Chief Collins would not tell any facts relative to how the conversation between the boy and boatman happened to be brought about, or why the check and money was exhibited.

Chief Collins continued: "We have learned who the boys with him that night are, and it may be that warrants will be issued today, but we will first have to locate the fight and also get the dead boy's name."

Coroner Baker is waiting on the police before holding the inquest and the detectives and all policemen are looking after their ends of the case.

Not Clarence Carey.

The boy is not Clarence Carey. Carey wrote Mrs. William Aday, with whom he boarded, saying he was alive and well in Mount City, Ill.

Jose Antonio Questioned.
Jose Antonio, a Syrian residing at the Round Top house near Sixth and Terrell streets, was examined at the city hall the night after the body was found and again this morning. It is understood he knew nothing about the matter and was asleep in the house all that night.

Others are being interviewed today and the police are exerting every effort to unravel the mystery.

NEW HIGH RECORD.

Is Made by Union Pacific in Last Fifteen Minutes.

New York, Aug. 25.—The stock market underwent a complete change in the last fifteen minutes, enormous buying of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific sending the former to 189, a new high record, and Southern Pacific to within a fraction of its high price of the early week. Union Pacific changed hands in blocks of thousands of shares and there was a wild rush to cover by the shorts.

Palma Is Prisoner.

Tampa, Fla., Aug. 25.—The steam ship Cassia arrived today from Havana and brought the information from private sources that President Palma was virtually a prisoner in his palace at Havana and that he has not left it for a week. The situation is much worse than is generally known.

MAY BE KIDNAPERS ATTACKED GIRL

Miss Clara Bader Sent to Relatives in Country.

Her Grandmother, Miss Carrie Schroeder Is Ill as Result of Shock to Nerves.

NO CLEW HAS BEEN FOUND.

That it was an attempt at kidnap-ing is now the belief in connection with the attack on Miss Clara Bader, the 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Joe Vogt, 1014 South Twelfth street, on Wednesday night, when two men entered the house and bound and gagged the girl. Whether the men were frightened away by other inmates of the house or whether they were found themselves in the wrong house, is only a conjecture. At J. T. Berger's residence in the same block somebody was heard at a window, and tracks were found in the yard.

Miss Bader has apparently recovered from the shock but her parents have sent her to visit relatives in the country.

The most serious outcome of the affair is the illness of the girl's grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Schroeder, 817 South Fourth street. When Mrs.
Schroeder heard of the occurrence she was seized with nervous illness and has been in a serious condition since.

CANNON OR PISTOL

DOUBT ABOUT WEAPON DIS-PLAYED IN POLICE COURT.

Page Patterson Said He Was Showing It Off, But Dora Henderson Had Him Arrested.

The manner in which Page Paterson, a red-headed negro, displayed a heavy piece of ordnance to Dora Haynes, on the Hinkleville road was offensive to her and she had him arrested. The ordnance consisted of a weapon of the calibre of a No. 10 shotgun with an 8-inch barrel, which Page was pleased to call a pistol, but which looks like a dismounted canon.
It weighed five pounds and is altogether unique and unserviceable for rapid maneuvering.

Page said he was just demonstrating the good points of the weapon to Dora Haynes, but she said he was doubtful it in a manner that is against the peace and dignity of the commonwealth of Kentucky. The case was continued to serve witnesses to the fact, as there is some apparent doubt as to the ability of the defendant to flourish such a weapon.

Other cases: Aaron Moore, Will Long, colored, breach of ordinance, continued; J. B. Pulliam, harboring a vicious dog, continued; George Hall, drunk and disorderly, $25 and costs; Harry Pike, Ed. Bulger, disorderly conduct, left open; Tim Nul-

TECHNICAL

ARE ABSENT FROM SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

Find That President's Call Lacks Essential Detail to Request of Other Members.

Those members of the school board who did not attend the called meeting last Tuesday night base their failure to attend on a technical defect in the call for the meeting issued by President Williamson.

They consulted lawyers, who gave their opinion, that the call, which appeared in The Sun was not drawn up in strict regard to the regulation, which covers that point. It is the president's duty when three or more members desire a meeting, to issue a call over his name. The call which appeared in The Sun lacked that technical detail, but was an unintentional oversight. In today's paper is the same call plus the president's order, for a meeting next Tuesday night, signed by those members who called the last special meeting.

Lake of Quicksilver.

Mexico City, Mexico, August 25.— A lake of quicksilver, covering an area of more than three acres and having a depth ranging from ten to fifty feet, has been discovered in the mountains of the state of Vera Cruz.
The value of the product is estimated at many millions of dollars.

board of police and fire commissteamer was also adopted, so the driver can be appointed at the next meeting of the board.

Terrible Scenes at Valparaiso After the Earthquake and Fire—Will Rebuild.

Valparaiso, Chile, August 25.—

One of the most pitiful incidents connected with the recent horror here is the fate of the wife of President-elect Montt. At the first shock of the earthquake she ran to the balcony outside the window of her bedroom. As the building collapsed she was hurled into the street where she lay unconscious and unnoticed because of the great confusion and excitement. When she was found her arms and fingers had been severed by ghouls for the jewels which she wore. She was still breathing, but in such a condition that it was recognized at once that she was dying.

Quickly as possible she was borne board the flagship Almirante O'Higgins, which was anchored in the harbor.
She died the next day.

Among the dead are eight Sisters of Charity, who were killed while aiding others during the earthquake.

According to plans and with the co-operation of the city government, Valparaiso will be rebuilt within a few years on a finer and more beautiful lines than before the disaster.

tific School of Yale.

New Haven, Conn., August 25.— Prof. William H. Brewer, professor emeritus in Sheffield Scientific school at the banquet of the American Veterinary Medical association last night advocated horse flesh as food. Prof.
Brewer said that horses are less liable to disease than bovine cattle that are now eaten for food, and the only thing which prevents the use of the flesh in this country is prejudice and lack of knowledge of its wholesome.

PREMIER STOLYPIN FATALLY WOUNDED IN ST. PETERSBURG

St. Petersburg, August 25.— Premier Stolypin, whom the czar appointed to select a cabinet on the dissolution of the duma, was fatally wounded by terrorists here today. Premier Stolypin's retirement has repeatedly been rumored on account of seeming inability to organize the government. The government is in consternation.
A bomb was thrown at him.

BANK CLEARINGS GAIN STEADILY

Increase Over Same Week of Last Year Enormous.

Tremendous Development of Country's Business and Great Prosperity of Farmers.

PADUCAH IS A BUSY CENTER

Clearings this week, $666,066 Same week last year, $24,323 Increase, $641,743

While the stringent quarantine in the principal cities of the south depressed business at this time last year, the marked increase in bank clearings chiefly may be attributed to the marvelous industrial expansion this country is experiencing at present.

The opening of the east to commerce after the Russo-Japanese war and the resulting demand for foreign products, gave an impulse to American industrial life which at present seems not to have any visible end. Success in the farming industry this fall will not have a parallel on record, and success there means success in every other class.

In Paducah the activity of the building trades, of public improvements, at the river, in the railroad shops, and at all the manufacturing plants, have turned immense quantities of money into circulation through the medium of wages. Spending this money among the merchants completes the circuit of activity.

Dun's Report.

New York, August 25.—Dun's weekly report follows: Wall street provided the only important development in the business situation during the week, prices of securities rising within an average of $2 per share of the record established last January while the general public became interested to the extent that it lifted the money rate to a legal maximum. Trade reports indicate a wholesome activity with no evidence of reaction. As the vacation season draws to an end there is a gradual resumption of idle manufacturing and, with the opening of many new furnaces, all records in iron production will be surpassed in the fall.
Steel mills require all the material that can be furnished. This is the typical situation in all the leading industries. Jobbing fall trade is opening briskly, 362 buyers registering in the New York market alone in a single day. Owing to the few exceptional large undertakings of last year in this city the total value of all building permits issued in July is slightly smaller than a year ago, but outside of New York there is a heavy increase. Crops are now almost beyond danger and their movement becomes a difficult traffic problem. Railway earnings for August show an average gain of 12.16 per cent over last year while foreign commerce in this port for the week gained $2,756,692 in imports and $1,446,521 in exports over 1905.

TYPHOID SEASON.

Typoid fever is a disease brought about by your own or somebody else's uncleanliness.
It is a disease of the intestinal canal. It is caused directly by the water or milk you drink or the food you eat getting poisoned with the disease—and in no other way. It is most easily acquired by those who suffer from constipation. Therefore, keep the bowels open and regular.

Water and milk are the two articles most frequently poisoned by typhoid. Heat kills the typhoid poison, therefore, boil all drinking water ten minutes.
Scald all milk and cream, especially that intended for the young. Dirty hands may also carry the typhoid poison, therefore wash your hands carefully before handling any article of food or drink. Food gets poisoned, especially green stuff, by being manured with night soil, by flies, crawling over it, or by contaminated dust from the street, or by being washed or watered with polluted water, therefore wash all vegetables and fruit intended to be eaten raw, with boiled water. Keep flies out of the house and shops.
Keep food supplies covered so that flies cannot gain access to them.

Clean up about your house and premises. Cleanly surroundings means cleanly people. Bad odors, dirty yards, dirty houses, bad ventilation, lower human resistance, render you more liable to contract the disease, therefore be clean in every detail of house keeping.

are climbing up. Jacksonville will get "hera" later and the pennant has not been won by any means.

Yesterday the locals defeated the Indians again by a score of 2 to 1.
It was a pretty game and was anybody's game until Way hit out a single which brought in the winning run.
The Indians scored first.

In the fourth inning Woodring gained Perry, Quigley singled, Wetzel struck out. Perry and Quigley attempted a double steal. Quigley threw wild to second allowing Quigley to reach third and Perry to score.
Quigley was put out on a grounder on Haas' grounder, Cooper flew out.

In their half the locals scored two runs. Blausser walked. Quigley accidentally, Dithridge hit safe, Blase went out to first. Blase purposely walked Myers, Way hit safe scoring Blausser and Dithridge. Dithridge's hitting was the feature of the game.

MAHOGANY IN NEGRO CATH.

Swamps of Georgia Hide Many Valuable Pieces of Fine Furniture.

Several of the curio shops in Savannah are kept by colored men. They have attained considerable success in the purchase of antiques, especially of old mahogany furniture, and they talk as glibly as Sheraton, Chippendale and colonial styles, inlay and veneer, as their white competitors, says a Savannah letter in the New York Sun.

"Where do you reckon I find most of the old mahogany?" asked one of these dealers, passing in the work of preparing a Queen Anne bedstead for the polish. "In the negro cabins.
Not the shanties in or near Savannah nor those on the main traveled roads.
All that furniture was picked up long ago.

"The darkies know nothing of the value of mahogany. It came to them from their friends or the plantation owners, who put it away for newer pieces of walnut and maple. It went out of fashion and so into the attic or the quarters, though the servants came into possession of most of it when the old homes were broken up after the war.

MIX THIS TIME.

Whole Neighborhood Aroused by Four Shots in Night.

A mink, the death squawks of a hen, and the excitement running through the veins of Mr. J. H. Fritzzins of 1030 South Fourth street, hook-keeper for the Hammond Packing company, caused Mr. Fritzins to shoot four times at a sound. This was sufficient to arouse the entire neighborhood at an early hour this morning. Mr. Fritzins was awakened by a hen squawking, and thinking it was his Mr. Fritzins shot at the sound. It was only the night before that Mr. Charles Riddle in the same neighborhood shot four times at a chicken-thief, and everybody thought the chicken-thief was back.
A hen in the back-yard of Mr. George Crenshaw, at 1100 South Fourth street, lay with its throat torn open.
The only plausible theory is that a mink committed the deed.

MOTHER TAKES POISON.

Sorrow Over Marriage of Daughter Causes Attempt at Suicide.

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—Grieving over her daughter's marriage which took place last night, Mrs. Margaret Fogarty swallowed arsenic and will die. The woman gave no intimation that she contemplated such an act and was in jovial spirits during the ceremonies that attended the marriage. She bade all the guests good night in a joyful mood, but this morning when she arose she seemed morose and out of spirits. This her relatives attributed to the absence of her daughter, of whom she was very fond, and attempted to cheer her up, but were unsuccessful, and late this afternoon she retired to her room and drank poison.

"I tasted a good many novel dishes while in Russia. That royal caviar is day in circuit court:

Citizens Bank & Trust company of Florida, against the Globe Bank & Trust company for $1,100 alleged to have been drafted and paid in for the use of the Leigh Fruit and Storage company. The petition states that the drafts were paid by the plaintiff and that the Leigh Fruit & Storage company was "shaky" at the time, and that the debt is the result of a scheme entered into by one of the officers of the bank to assist the storage company to keep on its feet. This was before the storage company became bankrupt and before the Globe Bank & Trust company changed officers.

divorce on the grounds of abandonment. They were married January 27, 1897, and separated four years ago.

Frank Lee for $50 damages. The plaintiff alleges the defendants fenced some of his property on the Clinton road.

Henry Gallman against the Metropolitan Life insurance company for that the plaintiff held a debt against David Heller for this amount. Heller died and the plaintiff wants to make the debt out of the insurance.

Nathan Cruise against Henrietta Cruise for divorce. They were married in January, 1905, and separated in October, 1905. The husband alleges statutory grounds.

Apocryphal Matter.

morning formally granted an appeal in the matter of refusing H. T. Hensig to qualify as an executor of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Hensig's will. An order was filed in county court in which it stated that the will had been admitted to probate; that Fred Kammiller, one of the appointed executors, had refused to qualify and that H. T.
Hensig, died tender bond and attempt to qualify, but was refused. The mat-

Remains of 200 Exposed by Flood During Terrible Storm.

Kansas City, Mo., August 25.— Scores of graves were washed out and at least two hundred bodies were exposed at Elmwood cemetery here today during a terrific rainstorm that caused serious damage to many sections of the city. Within three and a half hours 5.93 inches of water fell, setting a new record here. This great down-pour flooded practically the entire cemetery and a strong current was formed in the lower ground. Monuments were wrecked and other damage was done.
Many downtown basements were flooded and people were driven from their homes on low ground. At Kansas City, Kan., and at Armoindale and Argentine, Kan., great damage was suffered by railroads, wholesale houses and packing houses. Railroad tracks in the bottoms were under water for a time.

lie Rainey, who was with him. He is suspected of murdering Miss Sarah Schafer in Bedford, Ind., on January tion being that he mistook Miss whom he had an appointment at the Willett announce the marriage of their daughter, Henrietta, to Mr. Warren Wesley Hopkins, of St. Louis, Mo., to take place at 12:30 o'clock, Tuesday morning, September 11, in the parlor of the St. Francis de Sales parsonage, the Rev. Charles A. Haesley, of St. Jerome's Catholic church, Graves county, officiating. The wedding will be a quiet affair, only the families and intimate friends of the bride and groom will be present.

D. A. H. and F. D. C.

It has been said that a people who do not reverence their dead, never advance much in the arts of civilization. Reverence for the dead in its final meaning, is a reverence for their goodness, for their qualities incapable of being reversed, have no place in our estimation. Hence for a nation to linger over the memory of the past, for such is worship of the dead, means commonly that they are dwelling on the good qualities of their departed kind, and every time we allow our minds to be retrospective on high subjects, a stimulation toward better things in the present, is realized.

To allow our minds to dwell on the heroic qualities of those known and unknown of the "Lost Cause," or of that war, which indeed did revolutionize man's estate in this world, means that we get into an atmosphere of sincerity, earnestness and truth, which ought to make us live a better kind of lives.

The object of the United Daughters of the Confederacy is to preserve a right opinion of the Civil war; to preserve the memory of the Confederate dead in a practical way by decorating their graves; and in general, to keep up an organization devoted to the interests of the living as well as the dead members of the Confederacy.

The Daughters of the American Revolution is more a social organization because the generations of the revolutionary war long since have gone to rest.

Americans have reason to be proud of the past and those organized efforts to preserve and nourish such a spirit of hero-worship, evidence character traits which are remaining in this time of national transition and uncertainty.

MELODRAMA THIS WEEK AT KENTUCKY

The Patrons All Pleased With Way The Management Has Improved House During The Summer.

FRISCO PICTURES AT THE CASINO

NEXT WEEK AT THE KENTUCKY. Tuesday night "A Wife's Secret" Saturday matinee and night "On the Bridge at Midnight"

The Kentucky opened its doors to the amusement loving public Thursday night, offering a popular musical play, "His Highness, The Bey," a queer hodge-podge of melodrama, burlesque and farce, but entertaining withal. The audience was representative and frequent meritorious musical numbers received encores. "His Highness, The Bey" was just what Manager Roberts represented it to be, a good summer show.

Last night "A Soap Bubble," as light as its name suggests, held the boards. A number of pleasing specialties made the performance enjoyable.

Next week melodrama will succeed music and the titles "A Wife's Secret" and "On the Bridge at Midnight" fully testify to the class of production that will be witnessed Tuesday and Saturday nights, the last named with matinee. Those who take their dramatic food highly seasoned will revel in a feast of emotions, helped out with startling scenic effects.

For Labor day manager Roberts has secured an old friend: "The King of Tramps," which advertises lots of fun and plenty of specialties. Matinee and night performances will be given.

At The Casino.

This is the last night of opera at Wallace park Casino. All next week moving pictures of the Frisco fire and earthquake will be shown in the Casino.

"On the Bridge at Midnight," A brilliant scenic achievement. "On the Bridge at Midnight," which is to appear here for matinee and night performance Saturday, September 1, will present the famous reproduction of the Chicago jackknife bridge. The scenery, with all its excellences, is a fine detail of a story of deep interest, originality and plenty of romance. The management have secured a competent company. There is certainly nothing in the road like the bridge scene.

"The King of Tramps." Many new and novel features are promised in the Yankee Doodle comedy "The King of Tramps," which will be at The Kentucky on Labor day, matinee and night; September 3. The comedian is supported by a cast of well-known players including the little singer and dancer, Clyde Long, who has been especially engaged to introduce his latest and most novel specialty "The Scarecrow," so familiar to the little folks who have read of the wonderful adventures of the "Tin Woodmen" and "The Scarecrow" in the beautiful story book of "The Wizard of Oz." "The Scarecrow Dance" as done by Mr. Long is in a class by itself.

A Wife's Secret. "A Wife's Secret" is the interesting title of the melodramatic offering, now in its third season, which will be seen at The Kentucky Tuesday night, with the same scenic production as ever, ingenious mechanical effects, and a cast of high standing. It is said. The story of the play aims at the human emotions, and involves a story of love, adventure, heart-interest and comedy.

TO READERS OF THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL

Did you read the article published by The Ladies' Home Journal in May 1904, attacking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription? You seen the statement more recently made by Mr. Bok, the Editor of that magazine that his company "has not paid a single penny" to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern? * * * in settlement of any suit?" wish you to know the truth. The facts are these:

Four days after the article in May 1904, appeared, Dr. Pierce's company sued The Ladies' Home Journal publishers for libel. The trial was had in April last. Dr. Pierce proved that the attack made by The Ladies' Home Journal was false. He proved that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does not, and never did contain either alcohol or any of the injurious drugs which The Ladies' Home Journal falsely stated it did contain. This was so conclusively shown that the attorneys for The Ladies' Home Journal were forced to admit it. The jury rendered a verdict against The Ladies' Home Journal in favor of Dr. Pierce's company for $16,000.00. This was a complete vindication of Doctor Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription." It judicially established that the libel was wholly false, and without any justification.

Dr. Pierce, however, believed that his company is justly entitled to a verdict for a much larger sum. Through his attorneys he has, therefore, applied to the court for a new trial of the case. For this reason, and for this reason alone, has The Ladies' Home Journal not yet paid "a single penny" to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern." Dr. Pierce has simply chosen not to collect the judgment until the motion for a new trial has been decided.

In the light of these facts does not this boastful statement that it "has not paid a single penny" to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern" look like a cheap and common bluff, a half truth intended to mislead you?

During the trial of the libel suit, in fact the "Favorite Prescription" stands alone as being the only medicine for woman's special ailments which has any such endorsement, stated under oath that the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription were wholly extracted from the following native roots: Golden Seal, Blue Cohosh, Lady's Slipper, Black Cohosh and Unicorn, means of pure glycerine of proper strength. He was asked how he knew, as a physician and experienced medical man, that the "Favorite Prescription" was a cure for the diseases peculiar to women, such as "female weakness," "white discharge," "catarrh of the uterus," "retention of the menses," "irregular and painful periods," and other diseases of the womanly organs, and he stated that he knew such was the fact because of his professional experience and the many thousands of women whose files, to his personal knowledge, had been cured by this "Prescription."

This experience of Dr. Smith was corroborated by the standard Medical Authorities of the several schools of practice, endorsing the various ingredients in the strongest terms. Dr. Smith being asked to name some of these authorities as to the curative value of the above roots read from the standard works, such as the United States Dispensary, The American Dispensary, Organic Remedies, by Grover E. M. D. Materia Medica, by Professor Fillingim of the Bennett Medical College, Chicago, Illinois; Remedies, by Prof. Edwin M. Hise, D. D. of Chicago; Text-Book of Therapeutics, by Dr. Robert A. Kane, Prof. in Yale University; Laurence Johnson, M. D., Prof. in University of New York; Prof. John King, Author of "The Diseases of Women," Horatio C. Wood, M. D., Author of "The Female System," Bartolow, A. M. D., Professor of Materia Medica, Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia. All these recognized and standard authorities praise, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient which enters into the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not advertised as a "Cure All," but admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a superior and most positive remedy for all classes of diseases only—those easily recognized weaknesses, derangements, irregularities and painful disorders peculiar to women. It is a powerful, yet gently acting, invigorating, tonic and strengthening nerve, for weak, worn-out, overworked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, whether it be from too frequent bearing of children or from much worry, care, or over exertion of any kind. "Favorite Prescription" will be found most efficient in building up the strength, regulating all the womanly functions, banishing pain and bringing about a regular and healthy, vigorous condition of the whole female system.

Daily Thought.
 "The day of small things wisely used in the morning of true greatness."

The latest gerrymander by the Kentucky legislature is striking some legal bars, in the strict interpretation of the constitution and the bill of rights. Politicians must learn that there is a limit to the manner, in which they may redistrict a state for the purpose of segregating the vote of the enemy, thus curtailing its representation and making certain a continuous working majority in the legislative bodies. It is a common practice of the majority political party in a state to place as many counties as possible of the opposition in one district. The purpose is usually understood. The opposition counties are by this means kept out of doubtful districts, which then can be dominated by the artful distribution of county seats. Perhaps, as long as the letter of the constitution is relaxed, there is no remedy for the minority party, but when a state legislature organizes a legislative district with five times the population required for one representative, and another district with scarcely more than half the required population, and does so by organizing a district of counties that touch only at remote corners, the rights of the voters of all parties are trampled on, and citizens of the larger district are deprived of their rightful representation. It was this plain violation of the law that may nullify the latest gerrymander of Kentucky.

John D. Rockefeller's home for orphaned and blind girls will be one of the most beautiful and benevolent of the age, if it is backed by national legislation fixing an age for compulsory retirement from the work.

Police Judge McCann, of Louisiana, dismissed the members of a band playing at the Avenue theatre who were charged with giving a musical performance on Sunday.
 Perhaps, the judge saw the performance.

Those Georgia men who are boiled because Hoke Smith won in the of politicians, who have eat-their crow raw.

A scientist in California believes can graft maskelons on trees.
 He seems to be no limit to the development of graft in nature.

A tale professor claims that horse is better food than beef. We are to ask never tasted beef.

 fore the shippers are becoming suspicious of the measure.

A practical joker is amusing but not popular.

LAKES TO THE GULF.
 For several days, beginning with November 15, St. Louis will have a more important gathering of persons interested in the improvement of the Mississippi valley's waterways than has been held in this vicinity at any time in the past quarter century. This will be the lake-to-the-gulf deep water convention. The object of the convention will be to bring influence on congress to get the government to accept the drainage canal which Chicago has built, and to continue the deep water from the canal's lower end through the Illinois river down the Mississippi. From Cairo down to New Orleans the work would be comparatively slight. For most of that distance the water is ordinarily deep enough for boats of adequate draft.

A plan has been proposed by John A. Fox to advertise the deep-water convention. Mr. Fox, who is the assistant secretary of the executive committee of the river and harbor commission, suggests that excursions for editors of newspapers along the line of the big river and its principal tributaries—the upper Mississippi, the lower Mississippi, the Illinois, the Missouri, the Ohio, the Tennessee and the Cumberland—be got up, and he timed so that the boats from all these streams may strike St. Louis about the same time a day or two before the opening of the convention here, the arrival of the boats to be made the occasion of a big demonstration in this city. The whole affair would be calculated not only to impress the visitors with the importance of this vast system of waterways, but to also show the country that the 16,000 miles of navigable rivers between the Alle-ghany and the Rockies are an asset of incalculable advantage to the United States as a whole. The idea is excellent, and probably will commend itself to the St. Louis business men's league which is getting up the deep-water convention.

If St. Louis, Chicago, Memphis, New Orleans, Kansas City, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, and other important towns on the big river and its tributaries display the requisite energy and intelligence in supporting these projects for the improvement of the western rivers they can bring sufficient influence on congress to get the appropriations which are needed to do the work. The thirty-one states which are drained, in whole or in part, by the big river and its various affluents have representatives who constitute a majority of the members of each branch of congress.
 If they work with a reasonable degree of vigor and harmony they can get the legislation which they need. Three months from today the deep-waterway convention will be in session in St.
 Louis. There is still ample time to advertise the convention and its objects, and to get the entire Mississippi watershed interested in them. The whole valley, from Chicago and St. Louis to New Orleans, and from New York Pennsylvania and West Virginia onward to Montana, Kansas and Oklahoma, have a vital concern in this great enterprise of deep-water communication if all the interested communities work with a fair degree of intelligence and unanimity congress can be induced to enact the needed legislation.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Forty-five Tunnels.
 San Francisco, Cal., August 25.— The Gould Western Pacific is perfecting plans to enter California and when the road is completed it will be one of the greatest railroad engineering feats in modern times. The engineers in charge have instructions to keep one object in view, the straightest line with the least grade.
 To accomplish this 45 tunnels will be bored in eastern California between Oroville and Beckwith pass. Instead of going around mountains the Western Pacific is going through them.
 The longest of the tunnels is that at the head of Spring Garden, 12 miles east of Quincy. This is cut under the ridge dividing the north and middle forks of the Feather river. It will be over 7,000 feet in length.

Movements Are Veiled.
 Havana, Aug. 25.—All trace of Guevara's revolutionary army is lost temporarily. It is supposed to be moving somewhere in the province of Pinar del Rio with a force variously estimated at from 3,000 to 5,000, but the government officials are without information as to the exact whereabouts, telegraphic communication beyond the city of Pinar del Rio is interrupted and the government is unable to locate the enemy. Guevara's secret movements are causing the greatest alarm in Havana and Pinar del Rio.

Dead Sparrows Cause Typhoid.
 Three Oaks, Mich., August 25.— The cause of an epidemic of typhoid fever among the 1,000 inhabitants of this place was discovered when a member of the board of health climbed to the top of the water-works standpipe and found the dead bodies of several thousand young sparrows in various stages of decomposition, covering the surface of the water.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

The School Board.
 Without attempting to discuss the merits of application for position in the public schools, I want to ask if one faction in the board of education is justified in tying up the entire program preliminary to the opening of the fall term of school, on the very eve of the date, in its attempt to coerce another faction into supporting some special candidate which the said other faction opposes. I believe any man or woman who desires should be accorded full and free right to apply and that such application should receive honest consideration by the board, but when one part of the board adopt the tactics of coercion in behalf of any one candidate or measure, at the expense of every other consideration in their attempts to carry the point sought, parents and guardians should take heed at once and proceed to define to the obstructionists the true character of service required of the public agents.

The election of grade teachers and principals to fill the existing vacancies, and the adoption of a course of study, so that dealers may get their stock intended to furnish the requirements of pupils promptly at the opening of school, so that they may enter upon their studies with every advantage, is imperative.
 The High school enrolled about 150 pupils out of a total of 3,300 last year, so it is seen that the rights and privileges of more than 3,000 little boys and girls are entirely ignored and even sacrificed to the proposition of electing only one applicant to only one position in the High school department.

MANY DEFECTS FOUND.

In Mechanical Parts of the Airship Says Wellman.

London, Aug. 25.—Walter Wellman, leader of the Wellman-Chicago Record-Herald Arctic expedition, telegraphs from Spitzbergen, August 14 via Hamarfest, Norway, today, that the completion of the balloon house has been greatly delayed owing to the magnitude of the work. Many minor defects have been discovered in the mechanical parts of the airship and these are being repaired as fast as possible. The motors work excellent and the balloon part of the airship is in good condition. Mr. Wellman says it will still be possible, weather permitting, to get away toward the pole during the first week of September. The buildings erected will provide a valuable plant for next year's operations if the start is not made this year.

Three years ago the biggest draw-season was the battle of the Doctors against the Lawyers, and the success of the venture has tempted those inclined towards charity to try it again.

 "The druggists have been talking idea seems to meet with favor," W.

 M. Fitzpatrick said today. "We will play the game for the benefit of charity."

Next week the arrangements will

ON KIDNAPING CHARGE.

Policeman at San Diego, Cal., Placed Under Arrest.

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 25.—George C. Counts was arrested today by Deputy United States Marshal Pince on a charge of kidnaping preferred by Mexican Consul Diaz Prieto, of this city.
 The charge has been made a matter of international correspondence for some time past and Counts has been afraid to go on the other side of the line for fear that summary action would be taken against him there. Nearly two years ago, while searching for Frank Burns, aged about 16 years, who was wanted on a charge of breaking into a house, Counts went on the other side of the line and induced the young man to come on this side, where he was arrested, tried and sentenced to five years in the reform school. The Mexican authorities have been wanting Counts punished for his method of getting a prisoner. He will be taken before the United States commissioner and held to the federal court at Los Angeles.

In pursuance to this request, I call a meeting for the board of education

 Signed: H. F. WILLIAMSON, President.

To H. F. Williamson, President of Simply this: Purity. Lusterine

Dance.

Dauntless youth braved the heat to enjoy the dance last night. A number of the younger society boys arranged a dance for the pleasure of visitors in the city at the Wallace park pavilion. Two Dear Friends.

Two ladies met by chance in the refreshment room at a reception. As they ate they talked of their daughters, both this season's debutantes. "Dear Helen is invited everywhere," said the first, "she keeps me on the go." She slipped her coffee, and added: "Your daughter doesn't go out at all, does she?" "Oh, no," said the second. "You see, she got engaged at Christmas and doesn't have to."—Exchange.

FIRST OFFICIAL MAP.

Of the State of Oklahoma is Issued by Land Office.

Washington, August 25.—The first official map of the proposed state of Oklahoma was today issued by the general land office. The map, prepared by Frank Bond, chief of the drafting division of the land office, shows the new state as it will appear officially. The dividing line between Oklahoma and the Indian Territory has been eliminated.

The map shows that Oklahoma and Indian Territory have never been divided into counties. Recording districts 36 in number, take the place of the counties in the Indian Territory, and one of the duties of the constitutional convention will be to give these recording districts up-to-date American county names. There is a great demand for these maps, but they are all to be sold.

MAYOR TOO FOXY.

Police Commissioner Bond Forgot One of Executive's Attributes.

Mayor Yelser has entered the political game under all sorts of handicaps and he never has been caught nodding, and when Police Commissioner John Bond thought he had the mayor booked for a fine in the ordinance court by way of joke, he should have remembered the mayor's unbroken record for escaping consequences. Mayor Yelser is having some work done to his Third street property and this morning some lathes were heaped in the street. The police commissioner ordered a patrolman to swear out a warrant for Mayor Yelser. The latter informed the patrolman he had let the contract to J. C. Cunningham. So the warrant was sworn out for him. Then C. L. Dunlap appeared and said the contract had been sublet to him.

GIVE NO TIPS.

Shaw Denounces Rumor He Is to Purchase Government Bonds.

Washington, Aug. 25.—When asked about the rumor that he was about to purchase government bonds, the 48 of 1907, Secretary Shaw today asserted:

"Evidently somebody is trying to deceive the thoughtless. Every man with an ounce of financial sense recognizes that occasion for relief does not exist. It seems strange that rumors should be so persistent that I am going to do a thing, the doing of which at this time would be universally recognized as uncalculated for. If subsequent conditions demand action, I will act in such a way as I deem best at the time, but all rumors will be baseless. There will be no tips and no advance information."

RIGHTS OF VOTERS WERE VIOLATED

Circuit Judge Holds Gerry-mander Unconstitutional.

Judgment in Case Coming From Ohio County, Arising From Recent Legislation.

ALL THE NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Owensboro, Ky., August 25.—Another opinion has been rendered regarding unconstitutionality of the legislative redistricting bill. This decision has been rendered in the circuit court here, and like Judge Galloway's opinion, will be appealed. The case decided as that of Cal P. Keown against W. S. Tinley, clerk of the Ohio county court, and T. N. Johnson, declaring unconstitutional the legislative redistricting bill passed at the recent session of the legislature. The decision denies primarily with the Twenty-sixth legislative district, composed of the counties of Ohio, Butler and Edmonson, but affects the entire state.

Suit was filed by Cal P. Keown in the Ohio circuit court to test the constitutionality of the act. He is an independent candidate for the legislature from the old district, composed of Ohio county alone. T. N. Johnson, one of the defendants, is a resident of Butler county, and is a candidate to represent the three counties of Butler, Ohio and Edmonson. W. S. Tinley, clerk of the county court, is made a defendant because he refused to put the name of Keown on the ballot.

Judge Kirkhead holds that the act of the legislature in putting Butler, Ohio and Edmonson counties in one district is in violation of Section 23 of the constitution, of which the policy is that every citizen in the state shall have an equal vote in the making of the laws. With more than 50,000 in the Twenty-sixth district and only 7,000 in the Hancock district, one citizen of Hancock county would have as much power in the legislature as six or seven citizens in Butler, Ohio and Edmonson counties. This the judge holds to be an invasion of the rights of the citizen. Judge Kirkhead also holds that the courts have a right to revise the acts of the legislature.

Kebow to Run Again.
Maysville, Ky., August 25.—It is conceded that ex-Congressman James N. Kebow will be forced to accept the nomination for congress in this, the Ninth district, to oppose J. B. Bennett, the Republican nominee. Bennett defeated Kebow two years ago by 11 votes. Kebow says he will accept if the nomination is forced upon him. There are now seven announced candidates.

Actors Are Humiliated.
Louisville, August 25.—Judge McCann handed down his decision in the city court this morning in the cases of the eleven members of the "Four Corners of the Earth" company, who were arrested charged with violating the general Sunday law by giving a theatrical performance at the Avenue, Sunday, August 12.

"UNCLE JOE'S" PHILOSOPHY.

The Speaker's Sapient Remark on the Youths of His Time and Now.

One day a colleague asked Uncle Joe Cannon what in his opinion was the main difference between the days of his youth and the present time.

"Well," answered Uncle Joe reflectively, "when I was a youngster a young man was satisfied to paddle his own canoe but nowadays everyone thinks he has a call to steer the ship of state."—New York Sun.

Robinson Crusoe's Isle.

The reported destruction by the Chilean earthquake of the island of Juan Fernandez lends a final touch of romance to the scene of the 'tote habitation' of Alexander Selkirk, the historic original of Defoe's 'Robinson Crusoe.'

Since its discovery in the sixteenth century by Juan Fernandez, a pilot with Pizarro, the island has had a strange history. It was the rendezvous of the Dutch pirates Le Maire and Shonten to 1616, and for the next two centuries the piratical rovers of the South Seas made it their base. It is doubtfully related of Sharp, the English buccaneer, who landed there during Selkirk's sojourn between the years 1704 and 1709, that, on being pursued by a caravel sent out by the governor of Valparaiso, he left behind in his haste a black who became Selkirk's companion and the prototype of Crusoe's man Friday. This is probably a myth. Indeed, the true source of the entire plot of Defoe's tale may possibly be looked for in a Crusoe legend of undoubted antiquity, which is the inheritance of many people.

The island was later successively made into a Spanish fort, a Chilean convict station, and finally, until the Valparaiso earthquake, a hamlet of peaceful inhabitants was situated in its valley. Juan Fernandez lies some 300 miles west of Valparaiso and the report of its destruction is at least temporarily admissible from the fact of its volcanic origin. Tales have been told of light emanating from one of the loftier peaks, which rose in inaccessible grandeur to a height of 3,000 feet above the sea. Examination of the straitened lava, old lava formations, and greenstone of which it was composed, seemed to show, however, that the mountain must have been long quiescent.—New York Times.

Cutting It Short.

Dallas Welford, the English comedian, had been appointed to a toast at a banquet at the player's club but the speaker who preceded him proved long winded, and therefore a committee came to Mr. Welford and asked him in a whisper to cut his address extremely short.

"I have been asked to cut my speech short," Mr. Welford said when he arose. "All I wish is that I could cut it as short as a fella once did his sermon."

"This friar, on the feast of St. Stephen, had been appointed to preach on the saint but at the last minute a priest asked him to make the sermon brief, as the hour was already late."

"The friar accordingly ascended the pulpit and delivered the following address:

"Brethren, twelve months ago I preached to you a sermon on the saint whose feast we are celebrating today. As I have not heard of any other deeds performed by the saint in the interim I have nothing to add to what I said on the former occasion."

"Thereupon the friar blessed them and departed."

THINK THEY SEE PERIL IN NEW LAW

Shippers Will Appear Before Commerce Commission.

Because Traffic Men Claim Increased Profits Under the Repeal Bill.

UNIFORM RATE SCHEDULES

Shippers, says the Chicago Tribune, propose to follow the example of railroads in conferring among themselves and with their lawyers for the purpose of formulating plans to get the interstate commerce commission to construe the new rate law favorably to their interests. A meeting of the traffic managers of the principal manufacturing concerns of Chicago was held at the Auditorium Annex Thursday, and on next Monday, the day before the new law goes into effect, the executive committee of the American Shippers' association will meet at the New Willard hotel in Washington.

The result of these meetings is expected to be that the shippers will have representatives before the interstate commerce commission immediately after it is organized, urging it to give to the law an interpretation differing in many respects from that which the lawyers of the railroads are understood to be putting upon it, and to issue no regulations without full hearing of both sides.

See Peril in New Law.

The chief thing that has moved the shippers to action is the statement which many railroads traffic officials have concurred in making that they think the new law will largely increase the revenues of the roads and be otherwise beneficial to them. The shippers say they don't see how the law can help the railroads so much without hurting those who do business with them. Various regulations in regard to local and through rates, switching charges, bills of lading, etc., which the railroads are considering adopting, in order, as is stated, to conform to the law, have also caused alarm.

The initiative in the shippers' movement was taken by the traffic committee of the Illinois Manufacturers' association.

To Enforce New Rate Law.

By bringing about the enforcement of an old provision of law authorizing the interstate commerce commission to prescribe a special form of rate schedule, Commissioner F. M. Cockrell has taken a step which is regarded as of vast importance in preparing for the enforcement of the new railroad rate law enacted by congress last June.

In 1890 congress amended the interstate commerce act of 1887, and gave the commission power to specify the form of rate schedules. The schedules included at the freight tariffs of the railroads. These tariff sheets now go to the commission, but are submitted in any form that the railroad prefers. The power to prescribe a form has never been used.

It is believed by Mr. Cockrell—and the commission as a whole now takes the same view—that a system of uniform rate schedules, besides being an important step toward the effective administration of the new law, will also itself materially assist in stopping railway abuses, such as manipulation of rates in favor of special shippers.

The Manager Of the B. & O. A.

By VAUGHAN KESTER

Copyright, 1901, by Harper & Brothers

Not less remarkable was Hyder's posthumous fame. Men who had never known him in life now spoke of him with trembling voices and every outward evidence of the sincerest sorrow. It was as if they had sustained a personal loss, for his championship of the strike had given him a great popularity, and his murder, growing out of this championship, as all preferred to believe, made his death seem a species of martyrdom.

Indeed, the mere fact that he had been murdered would have been sufficient to make him popular at any time. He had embodied Antioch with a glorious sensation. It was something to talk over and discuss and shudder at, and the town was grateful and happy with the deep, calm joy of a perfect emotion.

It determined to give him a funeral which should be creditable alike to the cause for which he had died and to the manner of his death.

Meanwhile Dan had been arrested, examined and set at liberty again in the face of the prevailing sentiment that he should be held. No one doubted—he himself least of all—that Roger Oakley had killed Hyder. The Bennett recalled their meeting as he left the office to go home for supper on the night of the murder, and a red and yellow bandanna handkerchief was found under the table, which Dan identified as having belonged to his father.

Kenyon came to Antioch and made his resolution almost certain by the offer of a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer. This stimulated a wonderful measure of activity. Parties of men and boys were soon scouring the woods and fields in quest of the old convict.

The day preceding that of the funeral a dusty countryman on a hard-ridden plow horse dashed into town with the news that a man who answered perfectly to the description of Roger Oakley had been seen the night before twenty-six miles north of Antioch, at a place called Barrow's Sawmills, where he had stopped at a store and made a number of purchases. Then he had struck off through the woods. It was also learned that he had eaten his breakfast the morning after the murder at a farmhouse midway between Antioch and Barrow's Sawmills. The farmer's wife had at his request put up a lunch for him. Later in the day a man at work in a field had seen and spoken with him.

There was neither railroad, telegraph nor telephone at Barrow's Sawmills, and the fugitive had evidently considered it safe to venture into the place, trusting that he was alone of the news of his crime. It was on the edge of a sparsely settled district, and to the north of it was the unbroken wilderness stretching away in the lakes and the Wisconsin line.

The morning of the funeral an extra edition of the Herald was issued, which contained a glowing account of Hyder's life and achievements. It was an open secret that it was from the gifted pen of Kenyon. This notable enterprise was one of the wonders of the day. Everybody wanted a Herald as a souvenir of the occasion, and nearly 500 copies were sold.

All that morning the country people in hundreds of numbers flocked into town. As Clarence remarked to Spide, it was just like a circus day. The noon train from Hickman Junction arrived crowded to the doors, as did the 1 o'clock train from Harrison. Antioch had never known anything like it.

The funeral was at 2 o'clock from the little white frame Methodist church, but long before the appointed hour it was crowded to the verge of suffocation, and the anxious waiting throng overflowed into the yard and street with never a hope of reaching the building, much less securing seats.

A delegation of the strikers, the Young Men's Kenyon club, of which Hyder was a member, and a representative body of citizens escorted the remains to the church. These were the people he had feared at, whose simple joys he had ridiculed and whose griefs he had made light of, but they would gladly have forgiven him his sins as even he had known them. He had become a hero and a martyr.

Chris Berry and Jim Roberts were in charge of the arrangements. On the night of the murder the former had beaten his rival to the Herald office by exactly three minutes and had never left Hyder until he lay in the most costly casket in his shop.

It was admitted afterward by thoughtful men who were accustomed to weigh their opinions carefully that Mr. Williamson, the minister, had never delivered so moving an address or one that contained so obvious a moral. The drift of his remarks was that the death of their brilliant and distinguished fellow townsman should serve as a warning to all that there was no time like the present in which to prepare for the life everlasting. He assured his audience that each hour of existence should be devoted to consecration and silent testimony; otherwise, what did it avail? It was not enough that Hyder had thrown the weight of his personal influence and exceptional talents on the side of sound morality and civic usefulness. And as he soared on from point to point his hearers soared with him, and he was rounded in on each well tried climax they rounded in with him. He never failed them once. They always knew what he was going to say. before it was said and were ready for the thrill when the thrill was due. It might have seemed that Mr. Williamson was paid a salary merely to make an uncertain hereafter yet more uncomfortable and uncertain, but Antioch took its religion hot, with a shiver and a threat of blue flame.

When Mr. Williamson sat down Mr. Kenyon rose. As a layman he could be entirely enigmistic. He was sure of the faith which through life had been the guiding star of the departed. He had seen it buttressed by numerous acts of eminently Christian benevolence, and on those rare occasions when he had spoken of his hopes and fears he had, in spite of his shrinking modesty, shown that his standards of Christian duty were both lofty and consistent.

Here the Hon. Job Harrows, who had been dozing peacefully, awoke with a start and gazed with wide, bulging eyes at the speaker. He followed Mr. Kenyon, and though he tried hard, he couldn't recall any expression of Hyder's, at the last Star bar or elsewhere, which indicated that there was any spiritual uplift to his nature which he hid at secret altars; so he pictured the friend and citizen, and the dead faced well at his hands, perhaps better than he was conscious of, for he said no more than he believed.

Then came the prayer and hymn, to be succeeded by a heavy, solemn pause, and Mr. Williamson stepped to the front of the platform.

"All those who care to view the remains and I presume there are many here who wish to look upon the face of our dear friend before it is conveyed to its final resting place—will please form in line at the rear of the edifice and advance quietly up the right aisle, passing across the church as quickly as possible and thence down the left aisle and on out through the door. This will prevent confusion and make it much pleasanter for all."

There was a rustle of skirts and the awkward shuffling of many feet as the congregation formed in line; then it filed slowly up the aisle to where Chris Berry stood, wretched and dry, with a vulture look on his face and a vulture peck at his hands that now and again flicked at the flowers which were banded about the coffin.

The Emorys, partly out of regard for public sentiment, had attended the funeral, for as the doctor said, they were the only real friends Griff had in the town. They had known and liked him when the rest of Antioch was dubiously critical of the newcomer, whose ways were not its ways.

When the congregation thronged up the aisle Constance, who had endured the long service, which to her was unspeakably grotesque and horrible, in shocked if silent rebellion slipped her hand into her mother's. "Take me away," she whispered brokenly, "or I shall cry out! Take me away!"

Mrs. Emory hesitated. It seemed a desertion of a trust to go and leave Griff to these strangers, who had been brought there by morbid curiosity. Constance guessed what was passing in her mind.

"Papa will remain if it is necessary," Mrs. Emory touched the doctor on the shoulder. "We're going home, John; Constance doesn't feel well; but you stay."

When they reached the street the last vestige of Constance's self control vanished utterly. "Wasn't it awful?" she sobbed. "And his life had only just begun! And to be snuffed out like this, when there was everything to live for!"

Mrs. Emory, surprised at the sudden show of feeling, looked into her daughter's face. Constance understood the look.

"No, no! He was only a friend! He could never have been more than that. Poor, poor Griff!"

"I am glad for your sake, dearie," said Mrs. Emory gently.

"I wasn't very kind to him at the last, but I couldn't know—I couldn't know," she moaned.

She was not much given to these confidences even with her mother. Usually she never questioned the wisdom or righteousness of her own acts, and it was not her habit to put them to the test of a less generous judgment, but she was remembering her last meeting with Hyder. It had been the day before his death. He had told her that he loved her, and she had dared up, furious and resentful, with the dull, aching ache of many days in her heart and a cruel readiness to make him suffer. She had tried to convince herself afterward that it was only his vanity that was hurt.

Then she thought of Oakley. She had been thinking of him all day, wondering where he was, if he had left Antioch, and not daring to ask. They were going up the path now toward the house, and she turned to her mother again.

"What do they say of Mr. Oakley—I mean Mr. Dan Oakley? I don't know why, but I'm more sorry for him than I am for Griff. He has so much to bear!"

"I heard your father say he was still here. I suppose he has to remain. He can't choose."

"What will be done with his father if he is captured? Will they—? She could not bring herself to finish the sentence.

HER WHEREABOUTS STILL A MYSTERY

NoClew to Movements of Miss Lacy Summers.

Father Fears That in Her Nervous Condition She Committed Suicide.

BROTHER VISITED IN PADUCAH

Jackson, Tenn., August 23.—The whereabouts of Miss Lacy Summers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Summers, of North Royal street, who disappeared from her home in this city Tuesday, is still a mystery, all efforts on the part of her family to locate her having proved of no avail. Mr. D. L. Summers, her brother, who went to Fulton and later to Paducah in search of her, has returned home after losing all trace of his sister, and the family are now seeking anxiously for any clue.

Last night Mr. J. E. Summers, brother of Miss Lacy, requested Chief of Police T. C. Gaston to write a letter of inquiry to be sent to the chief of police at St. Louis. The request was complied with and the letter mailed together with an accurate and minute description of the missing lady, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Summers says his sister was heard to remark on Monday, the day before her sudden disappearance, that she believed she could make from $50 to $75 per month in the millinery business, if she were only in St. Louis, and this remark leads the family to believe that she has gone to that place.

In addition to sending a letter of inquiry to St. Louis, a picture of her has been sent to papers in St. Louis, Nashville and Memphis.

Conductor Hugh Palmer of the Illinois Central, states that the conductor of the local freight out of Fulton last Tuesday, says a young lady answering Miss Summers' description went on his train from Fulton, getting off at Mayfield, Ky.

The father of the young lady said this afternoon he is fearful that in her nervous condition that she may have become desperate and made way with herself in some manner.

He thinks she did not leave the city and it is requested that the police and citizens make a search of any out-of-the-way place about the city for her.

HAD THE ROYAL DONKEY SAFE Captain's Way of Signalling That Fact Offends Lighthouse Keeper.

King Edward lately sent to his grandson, Crown Prince Olaf of Norway, a gift of a donkey, confiding the animal to the special care of the captain of the steamship Montehello, says a London cable.

When the steamer arrived outside Christiania, the captain signalled the lighthouse "All right." No acknowledgment signal was given, whereupon the captain set a signal reading, "Ass. One is all right. How's the other?" Still there was no reply, and the captain took his vessel into the harbor.

Knowing that the authorities are very strict in reference to vessels passing the lighthouse being reported and also being impressed with his responsibility as custodian of the royal donkey, he complained to the officials of the lighthouse's neglect. An inquiry was immediately instituted, which revealed that when the Montehello passed the lighthouse and gave the first signal the signalman was using the telephone and was unable to reply. When, having finished his conversation over the telephone, he saw the second signal, he constructed the word ass as a contemptuous epithet applied to himself. His dignity was wounded, and he refused to report the offender.

PIGEON GAME

COST EDDYVILLE NEGRO $4.50
LAST NIGHT.

Finder of Purse Offered to Divide $100 Takes Rucker's Money and Goes for Change.

W. L. Rucker, an Eddyville negro, played the "pigeon" in $4.50 "shy" today because he agreed to divide a $100 bill with two strange negroes who pretended to have found the money. He placed the matter in the hands of the police who are now at work on the case.

Rucker came here to attend the funeral of his brother, Alex Rucker, who died yesterday morning. He was walking out Kentucky avenue near Sixth street about dusk last evening when a strange negro walking in front of him stooped and picked up a pocketbook. He was in the act of opening it when a negro just behind Rucker, who evidently had seen the "find," spoke up and demanded a "divvy." The finder of the purse agreed, but the pocketbook contained a $100 bill.

Rucker was brought into the game and offered a third of the money if he would keep "closed" about the find. He readily agreed and the three began searching for change. It was too late for banks and Rucker offered his $4.50. This was not enough, and he willing Rucker to await their return with the change the two made off.

Rucker is still looking for his money and the police for the two negroes whom Rucker thinks he will recognize if he sees them again.

Jury Disagree.

The jury in the case of Doss Gabriel, alleged mob leader, at Springfield, Mo., yesterday reported its failure to agree. Only two jurors favored conviction.

Beaten By Footpads.

Eugene Weaver, a prominent Allen county man, was beaten senseless and robbed while returning from a church near Scottsville and is in a serious condition.

RIVER NEWS

River Stages.
Cairo	22.2	0.3 fall
Chattanooga	6.4	0.1 fall
Cincinnati	16.2	0.4 fall
Evansville	13.8	0.2 fall
Florence	1.5	0.4 fall
Johnsenville	7.2	0.2 fall
Louisville	7.0	0.1 fall
Mt. Carmel	2.8	0.0 rise Nashville	9.6	0.3 rise
Pittsburg	1.1	0.3 fall
Davis Island Dam	6.1	0.5 fall
St. Louis	10.3	0.5 fall
Mt. Vernon	13.0	0.2 fall
Paducah	12.3	0.1 fall

The river is falling here now and probably will continue to do so until the middle of September when, if it follows its course of last year, it will begin to rise and go to a higher stage than the highest this month, 12.8. The gauge registered a stage of 12.3 this morning, a fall of .4 in the last 24 hours. According to river men, there has been a low stage of water out of Pittsburg every month in the last two years. This is something unknown in the history of the river previously. The coal shippers calculate on a rise every month, and so far they have gotten it. Last September a stage of 15 feet was reached. The Jim Wood passed up this morning from Cairo with a tow of 18 empties. Estimating conservatively that there are fifteen carloads of coal to a barge, the tow of coal the Tom Reese carried down Thursday of 22 barges, would make 330 carloads. With 22 cars to the freight train, it would have required 15 train loads of coal to bring it here by rail. The crews on these trains largely would outnumber the men employed in bringing the tow down the river.

There will be one "season" Sunday. The George Cowling will go to Cairo for a local lodge.

The John Hopkins was the Evansville packet today. None tomorrow. The City of Sallio will arrive from St. Louis Sunday on the up trip to the Tennessee river.

The Dick Fowler had a good passenger trip this morning to Cairo and way points.

The Kentucky arrived from Joppa yesterday evening and will leave this evening at 6 o'clock for the Tennessee river.

The Henry Harley is expected to come here the first week in September from the upper Cumberland river. There are only light repairs to be made on the Harley.

The Woolford was expected up from Cairo today with a tow of empties.

The Lydia did not get away until today for the Tennessee river.

The Buttrick will leave Nashville this afternoon at 5 o'clock and arrive here Sunday night. Monday at noon the Buttrick will leave for Clarksville.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville will remain nearly stationary or fall slowly during the next 21 to 26 hours. From Mt. Vernon to Cairo, will continue falling during the next several days.

The Tennessee at Florence will continue falling. At Johnsonville, will remain nearly stationary during the next 24 hours.

The Mississippi from Chester to Cairo, will continue falling during the next several days.

Monument to a Pig.

"Did you ever see a monument to a pig?" said an invalid.

"No."

"Well, there is such a monument in existence. The town of Lunenburg, in Hanover, owns it. It stands in the town hall—a glass case containing an embalmed ham from the pig, together with a great slab of black marble, engraved with letters of gold.

"Lunenburg is a rich town and famous through its salt springs. A pig discovered these springs. To this pig the monument was put up. The golden inscription says, in Latin: 'Stranger, contemplate here the mortal remains of the pig which acquired for itself imperishable glory by the discovery of the salt springs of Lunenburg.'—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Following Instructions.

"Gracious man!" exclaims the doctor when Mr. Glubbins calls him in a hurry. "Your temperature is rising along near the danger point, and you—"

"And I'm worse off than I ever was before" all through the diet you prescribed."

"Impossible, Mr. Glubbins. I told you distinctly to confine yourself to such foods as would be taken by a three-year-old child."

"And didn't I follow orders? I ate apple cores and dog biscuits and ends of burnt matches and scraps of potato peeling and everything else I could pick up while no one was looking—and here I am pretty near dead!"

Hastily reflecting upon the gastronomical tendencies of the average three-year-old child, the doctor tells Mr. Glubbins that he has been overdoing the diet, and will have to subsist on soft toast and hot water for a week. —Life.

Unconvincing.

Upton Sinclair, the famous young novelist, was talking to Princeton about America's more notorious and vicious corporations.

"The men who own these corporations don't regard themselves," he said, "as scoundrels, as vile and pitiless scoundrels. Somehow they deceive themselves into thinking that they are good business men, public benefactors who put bread into the mouths of thousands of poor folk."

"Their reasoning is altogether jumbled, illogical, idiotic, unconvincing. It is like the reasoning of the boy with the toothache."

"This boy, beside himself with toothache, muttered, as he started for the dentist's with his hand to his cheek:—"

"Maybe it'll ease up some by the time I get in the chair. If it does, I'll pretend I want a haircut."

Charles Hercules Road, keeper of antiquities of the British museum and successor of the late Sir Wellesley Franks, has sailed from Queenstown for America.
